LIGHTING TO TRANSPORT THE LA RIVER GARDENS
BACK TO THE GOLDEN AGE OF HOLLYWOOD

DESIGNER: CHRISTIAN V. MEJIA

GOLDEN

A CELEBRATION

775. A WORLD PREMIERE NIGHT IN HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA.

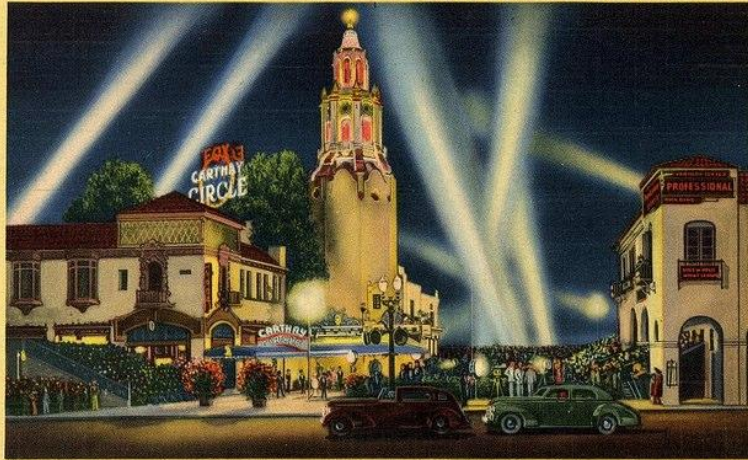

One cannot think of Los Angeles without picturing Hollywood and all of its mythic fantasy, luxury, and intrigue. The two are intrinsically woven together in our collective understanding of this fairytale city.

GOLDEN celebrates Los Angeles' vibrant motion picture history and the glamor of the Golden Age of Hollywood.

Strolling through the LA River Gardens courtyard at night, guests will feel instantly transported back in time to a nostalgic Art Deco era of opulence.

LA-118—Fox Carthay Circle Theatre, Los Angeles, California

Will a starlet, dripping in diamonds, emerge suddenly from beneath a canopy of glittering lights? Or will you encounter the leading man, lounging under the warm, soft glow of chandeliers hanging from the lush trees?

Anything feels within the realm of possibility in this fantasy world.

GUEST EXPERIENCE

While enjoying the LA River Gardens, guests will feel like they are the stars of their own Golden Age movie as the luxurious warmth of the atmospheric lighting and thoughtful vintage decorative luminaires transport them to the fantasy of a bygone era.

The image features a central text element 'THE END' rendered in a stylized, multi-lined font. This text is enclosed within a complex, geometric Art Deco frame. The frame consists of multiple concentric rectangular borders, with some lines being thicker than others. At the corners of the frame, there are small pink squares, some of which contain a gold 'X' mark. Diagonal lines also cross the frame, adding to its intricate design. The overall color palette is gold and pink on a white background.
